COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, EVIN KING, by his attorneys LOEVY & LOEVY, complains of Defendants CLEVELAND POLICE OFFICERS ROBERT MATUSZNY, GREGORY KUNZ, MICHAEL O'MALLEY, THOMAS MILLER, TIMOTHY ZBIKOWSKI, DENNIS GUNSCH (Cleveland Police Officers identified above will be referred to collectively as "POLICE DEFENDANTS"), CITY OF CLEVELAND, a municipal corporation, ROBERT CHALLENGER, KAY MAY (Defendants Challenger and May will be referred to collectively as "FORENSIC DEFENDANTS"), ELIZABETH K. BALRAJ, Cuyahoga County Coroner, and CUYAHOGA COUNTY as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff's journey into a nightmare of injustice began with a horrible tragedy, the rape and murder of Crystal Hudson. Ms. Hudson was raped and killed at an unknown time between June 20 to 22, 1994. The crimes have never been solved.

2. Instead of doing the work to find the real rapist/murderer, Defendants took the easier path and pinned the crimes on Plaintiff, whose only offense was simply being present when the body was found.

3. At the time of her death, Plaintiff had been dating and Ms. Hudson, and occasionally stayed at her house.

4. Police Defendants immediately, unequivocally, and wrongly accused Plaintiff of the rape and murder immediately after Ms. Hudson's body was found. He was arrested at the scene and was imprisoned for the next 23 years of his life for a crime he did not commit.

5. There was never any real evidence connecting Plaintiff to the rape or murder. Rather, all of the evidence against Plaintiff was fabricated to quickly "solve" the murder and never look back.

6. In fact, at the time, DNA evidence established conclusively that Plaintiff was not the person who raped Ms. Hudson.

7. But nothing (not even DNA evidence) would shake Defendants from their rush-to-judgment. When evidence repeatedly demonstrated that the culprit was someone else, Defendants either hid that evidence or fabricated new evidence so that crime remained “solved.”

8. Defendants had no intention of ever finding the true rapist/murderer. Instead, they wanted to support the arrest and prosecution of Plaintiff regardless of the truth.

9. Police Defendants fabricated and manipulated false witness accounts, including from minor children, to suggest Plaintiff’s role in the murder.

10. Forensic Defendants fabricated evidence to allow them to claim falsely that the rape did not happen contemporaneous to the murder—this was directly contrary to the physical evidence in the case. To be clear, the actual physical evidence did not remotely support Defendants’ theory at the time or now.

11. Based on the force of the fabricated evidence, Plaintiff was charged, prosecuted, and wrongly convicted of murder. He was sentenced to fifteen years to life in prison.

12. He served 23 years imprisoned for a crime he did not commit before he was exonerated.

13. Plaintiff now seeks justice for the harm that Defendants caused him and redress for the loss of liberty and the terrible hardship that Plaintiff has endured and continues to suffer as a result of Defendants’ misconduct.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. This action is brought under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988 and Ohio law to redress Defendants’ tortious conduct and their deprivation of Plaintiff’s rights secured by the U.S. Constitution.

15. This Court has jurisdiction of Plaintiff's federal claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and supplemental jurisdiction of his state-law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

16. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). On information and belief, the majority of Defendants reside in this judicial district, and the events and omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred within this judicial district.

PARTIES

17. Plaintiff Evin King is a 61 year-old father of three who spent over two decades of his life in prison for crimes he did not commit.

18. Defendants Robert Matuszny, Gregory Kunz, Michael O'Malley, Thomas Miller, Timothy Zbikowski, and Dennis Gunsch ("Police Defendants") are current or former officers of the Cleveland Police Department. These Defendants were responsible for investigating crimes, including the crime at issue in this case, and for supervising other Police Defendants. These Defendants committed, facilitated, and approved the constitutional violations at issue in this case.

19. Defendant Challener was the Chief Deputy Coroner of the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office. He was responsible for investigating evidence related to deaths, including the crime at issue in this case, and for supervising other staff in the Cuyahoga Coroner's office. Defendant Challener committed, facilitated, and approved the constitutional violations at issue in this case.

20. Defendant Kay was a Forensic Serologist at the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office. She was responsible for analyzing evidence related to deaths, including the crime at issue in this case. Defendant Kay committed, facilitated, and approved the constitutional violations at issue in this case.

21. Defendant Elizabeth K. Balraj, in her individual and official capacities, was the elected Cuyahoga County Coroner in 1994 who oversaw the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office. Defendants Challener and May were employed by her or were acting as an agent of the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office while conducting the investigation described in this Complaint. Defendant Balraj is therefore liable for all torts committed by these Defendants under the doctrine of respondeat superior. Defendant Balraj is additionally responsible for the policies and practices of the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office, which were implemented by Defendants in this case. Finally, Defendant Balraj is responsible under Ohio law for any judgment entered against Defendants.

22. Defendant Cuyahoga County, Ohio, is a municipality of the State of Ohio, which oversees the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office. Defendants Challener and May were employed by Cuyahoga County or were acting as agents of Cuyahoga County and the Cuyahoga County Coroner's Office while conducting the investigation described in this Complaint. Defendant Cuyahoga County is therefore liable for all torts committed by these Defendants under the doctrine of respondeat superior. Finally, Defendant Cuyahoga County is responsible under Ohio law for any judgment entered against Defendants.

23. Defendant City of Cleveland is a municipality of the State of Ohio, which oversees the Cleveland Police Department. Each of the Police Defendants referenced above was employed by the City of Cleveland or was acting as an agent of the City of Cleveland and the Cleveland Police Department while conducting the investigation described in this Complaint. Defendant City of Cleveland is therefore liable for all torts committed by these Defendants pursuant to the doctrine of respondeat superior. Defendant City of Cleveland is additionally responsible for the policies and practices of the Cleveland Police Department, which were implemented by Defendants in this case. Finally, Defendant City of Cleveland is responsible under Ohio law for any judgment entered against Defendants.

24. At all times relevant to the events described in this Complaint, each of the individual named Defendants acted under color of law, within the scope of his/her employment, and as an investigator. Each of the individually-named Defendants is sued in his individual capacity, unless otherwise noted.

FACTS

The Rape and Murder of Crystal Hudson

25. Crystal Hudson was raped and murdered sometime between the night of June 20 to the morning of June 22, 1994. Her naked body was hidden in a closet in her apartment.

26. The autopsy of Ms. Hudson revealed that she had been hit and scraped on the head and about her body. It also revealed that those injuries happened simultaneously with her being strangled and that this all happened while she was naked.

27. In addition, the autopsy revealed physical injury to her rectum, including hemorrhaging, consistent with an anal rape.

28. Rectal and vaginal smears revealed the presence of sperm, with most of the sperm found from the rectum.

29. When Crystal Hudson's body was examined, the medical examiner identified the presence of many sperm head cells and took fingernail scrapings.

Police Defendants Immediately Arrest Plaintiff

30. Plaintiff had absolutely nothing to do with the murder of Crystal Hudson.

31. Plaintiff had been staying with Hudson at her apartment, and was there watching television when her body was found on the morning of June 22, 1994 at around 11:00 a.m. He had not known where Hudson had been, and had been asking family and neighbors if they had seen her.

32. Despite having nothing to do with the rape or murder, Mr. King was arrested immediately after police arrived at the apartment. There was no probable cause to arrest Plaintiff, as there was zero evidence that he had anything to do with these horrible crimes.

Police Defendants Manufacture Evidence to Implicate Plaintiff

33. After he was arrested, Plaintiff's clothes were collected and analyzed for blood, fibers from the scene, or other evidence from the crime scene. With his permission, his body was also examined—fingernail scrapings were done, blood was drawn, saliva and hair samples were taken, and he was searched for signs of injury consistent with a physical struggle. No physical evidence was ever uncovered to connect him to the murder.

34. Despite physical evidence that unequivocally excluded Plaintiff, police immediately focused on Plaintiff as the murderer simply because it was easier to manufacture evidence against him than to do the work necessary to find the real killer.

35. With the dearth of evidence implicating Plaintiff, Defendants set about creating false and/or misleading evidence against Plaintiff.

36. There has never been any dispute that the sperm cells recovered from Ms. Hudson's body did not match Plaintiff's blood type.

37. Moreover, DNA testing confirmed that the tissue scrapings from underneath Ms. Hudson's fingernails and the semen from the rectal and vaginal smears all shared the same DNA—this DNA is evidence of a violent struggle that did not involve Plaintiff.

38. As further evidence of their intent to frame Plaintiff, Defendants did not seek to have the DNA evidence recovered from Crystal Hudson's body uploaded into a national database to compare it with other DNA profiles to find the real killer.

39. Instead, Defendants fabricated statements by Plaintiff related to the location of his leather jacket in Ms. Hudson's apartment. This fabrication was meant to make it appear as if Plaintiff lied about his knowledge of the location of Ms. Hudson's body, and was used as justification to arrest Plaintiff for the murder.

40. Defendants also preyed on the emotional fragility of Ms. Hudson's two young minor children who had just lost their mother.

41. Defendants fabricated information from Ms. Hudson's young minor children to falsely implicate Plaintiff in the rape and murder. They did so by manipulating the girls' statements and memories of what they had seen through suggestive and coercive questioning. The manipulated statements were meant to generate details to falsely make it appear as if Plaintiff had committed the rape and murder.

42. This witness manipulation caused one or both of the girls to offer false inculpatory information that included, but is not limited to: (1) the girls not having access to keys to the apartment (meant to support a false narrative that Plaintiff locked the girls out of the apartment); (2) a vague identification of Plaintiff being present at Ms. Hudson's supposedly locked apartment at a time when he was not actually there but when the rape/murder could possibly have taken place; (3) a statement that on the night of the murder, one of the girls heard a male voice "like" Plaintiff's and that the man refused to open the door; (4) a false description about Plaintiff's activities to make him appear guilty; and (5) the timing of their entry and exit from the apartment which made it seem that Plaintiff had opportunity to commit the rape/murder.

43. Defendants failed to disclose this manipulation.

44. In order to explain the different versions caused by, and to hide, their manipulations, Defendants falsely claimed that the girls were “confused” or “blocking the events.”

45. Defendants further hid this manipulation by failing to document all of the communications they had with the girls.

46. Defendants also manipulated and/or threatened at least one witness into retracting evidence that supported Plaintiff’s innocence.

47. Police Defendants further destroyed exculpatory evidence by destroying police reports and notes made contemporaneously with the investigation and/or by collectively interviewing Ms. Hudson’s two minor daughters along with Ms. Hudson’s mother in an effort to create a false unified inculpatory narrative.

48. Defendant Gunsch was the supervisor who oversaw the entirety of the fabrication of evidence by Police Defendants.

Forensic Defendants Fabricate Science to Support a False Timeline of the Rape to Implicate Plaintiff

49. Almost immediately, however, Police Defendants’ fabricated case looked like it might unravel because the DNA evidence from the vaginal and rectal smears demonstrated conclusively that it was not Plaintiff who committed the contemporaneous rape.

50. The physical evidence established that the rape was contemporaneous with the murder because of the type of trauma injury, the fact that the hemorrhaging from the rectal injury did not contain white blood cells (which would be expected if the victim had remained alive as the body would react to the trauma), and the autopsy revealed that semen was dripping from the rectum.

51. The blood type and DNA profile from the sperm from the rectal and vaginal smears did not match Plaintiff's. This meant that he was not the man who had raped Mr. Hudson at the time of the murder.

52. The Police Defendants sought to undermine the physical evidence that exonerated Plaintiff. They found willing partners in Defendants Challener and May.

53. Defendants Challener and May fabricated false evidence, totally unsupported by science and the physical evidence, that the sperm cells found in Ms. Hudson's rectum and vagina were likely deposited days before the rape and murder as a result of consensual sexual intercourse.

54. Each drafted reports that falsely stated that the forensic evidence supported that the semen secretion could not have been contemporaneous with Ms. Hudson's murder.

55. Neither disclosed that the reports were false.

56. Forensic Defendants fabricated evidence to downplay the prevalence of sperm found on the smears. They falsely generated an expert opinion relating to the prevalence of sperm to alter the timing of the deposited semen to make it appear that it was deposited days before the murder. In fact, science available at the time of this fabricated opinion supports that the sperm was most likely deposited during the rape contemporaneous with the murder.

57. Moreover, Forensic Defendants created a false report to hide the presence of sperm in Ms. Hudson's rectum. They did this by falsely suggesting that the sperm was found in Ms. Hudson's vagina. They misrepresented this fact because the rectal injuries occurred contemporaneously with the murder so they deliberately hid that the biological evidence (which excluded Plaintiff as the sources) was related to that injury.

58. Similarly, Forensic Defendants authored a Trace Evidence Report analyzing the sperm that falsely stated the prevalence of the sperm. Their description of the number of sperm heads was directly contrary to the physical evidence. Moreover, Forensic Defendants' conclusions about the likely timing of the deposit of semen as days before the contemporaneous rape and murder of Ms. Hudson was knowingly fabricated and not based on the known science at that time. Similarly, Forensic Defendants made knowingly false statements, not based in the available science, about the absence and lack of detectability of p30 protein as additional support for the theory that the deposit of semen occurred days before Ms. Hudson's murder.

59. To be clear, Forensic Defendants' fabricated evidence was not supported by the actual physical evidence or by accepted science at the time.

60. Instead, the evidence was fabricated in a successful effort to falsely implicate Plaintiff in the murder by eliminating the fact of the actual culprit, whose DNA profile totally exonerated Plaintiff.

61. To hide evidence of fabrication, Defendants denied Plaintiff access to the DNA evidence and, instead, destroyed that evidence.

Defendants Suppress the Fabrication

62. In order to hide the absence of forensic support behind their fabrications about the prevalence of sperm cells, Defendants, hid the exculpatory evidence that could have been used to prove the fabrication. This evidence includes but is not limited to: the microscopic slides prepared at Crystal Hudson's autopsy, all of the microscopic slides prepared by the Cuyahoga County Crime Lab, and all of the laboratory bench notes from the testing (including original-quality photographs of the DNA quantification assays and DQA1/Polymarker test strips.

63. In addition to the affirmative suppression of exculpatory evidence, Defendants collected evidence, but did not disclose the evidence that was collected so that Plaintiff could not have that evidence further tested. In this way, they withheld potentially exculpatory evidence from Plaintiff and the prosecution because the identification of that evidence was unavailable.

Plaintiff's Wrongful Conviction and Imprisonment

64. As a result of Defendants' misconduct, Plaintiff was tried by a jury in 1995. Plaintiff contested guilt at every stage of his arrest and prosecution.

65. During the trial, the false evidence developed by Police and Forensic Defendants was used against Plaintiff.

66. On February 28, 1995, a jury convicted Plaintiff of Crystal Hudson's murder. He was sentenced to fifteen years to life imprisonment.

67. Without Defendants' fabricated evidence, Plaintiff never would have stood trial and never would have been convicted of murder. Without this false evidence, there was nothing to support a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

68. Likewise, had Defendants disclosed the exculpatory evidence that would ultimately exonerate Plaintiff, he never would have been arrested, let alone convicted of these crimes for which he is innocent.

Plaintiff's Exoneration

69. Plaintiff never gave up on proving his innocence.

70. In January 2017, a new Cuyahoga County Prosecutor undertook a review of Plaintiff's case while Plaintiff's legal team was challenging Plaintiff's conviction based on the forensic evidence demonstrating that Ms. Hudson was raped and murdered contemporaneously and that Plaintiff could not have been the source of the DNA from the perpetrator.

71. The Cuyahoga County Prosecutor agreed that Plaintiff could not have been the perpetrator and, on April 14, 2017, filed a motion to Vacate Plaintiff's conviction.

72. As a result, all charges were dismissed against Plaintiff.

Plaintiff's Damages

73. Plaintiff was in his mid-thirties, in the prime of his life, at the time that he was wrongly arrested and convicted. He was arrested, prosecuted, and convicted for no good reason. Plaintiff would spend the next two plus decades imprisoned for something he did not do.

74. Plaintiff's whole life was turned upside down without any warning. A substantial portion of his adulthood has been consumed by the horror of his wrongful imprisonment.

75. Plaintiff was taken away from family and friends. Because of Defendants' misconduct, Plaintiff has missed out on the lives of his family and friends. This included being ripped from his three young children.

76. Plaintiff's unlawful arrest and prosecution immediately caused him to suffer from emotionally and physical. That harm continues to this day.

77. Plaintiff was also deprived of opportunities to engage in meaningful labor, to develop a career, and to pursue his interests and passions. Plaintiff has been deprived of all of the basic pleasures of human experience, which all free people enjoy as a matter of right, including the freedom to live one's life as an autonomous human being.

78. During his decades of wrongful imprisonment, Plaintiff was detained in harsh and dangerous conditions in maximum security prisons.

79. In addition to the severe trauma of wrongful imprisonment and Plaintiff's loss of liberty, Defendants' misconduct continues to cause Plaintiff extreme physical and psychological pain and suffering, humiliation, constant fear, anxiety, deep depression, despair, rage, and other physical and psychological effects.

COUNT I
42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Due Process

80. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully restated here.

81. In the manner described more fully above, Defendants, while acting as investigators, individually, jointly, and in conspiracy with one another, as well as under color of law and within the scope of their employment, deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional right to a fair trial.

82. Defendants deliberately withheld exculpatory evidence from Plaintiff and from state prosecutors, among others, thereby misleading and misdirecting the criminal prosecution of Plaintiff.

83. Defendants fabricated and solicited false evidence, including testimony that they knew to be false, implicating Plaintiff in the crime, obtained Plaintiff's conviction using that false evidence, and failed to correct fabricated evidence that they knew to be false when it was used against Plaintiff at his criminal trial. In addition, Defendants produced a series of false and fraudulent reports and related documents, which they inserted into their file and presented to state prosecutors and judges. These documents, which were used to show Plaintiff's purported connection to the crime, contained statements and described events that were fabricated and that Defendants knew to be false. Defendants signed these reports, both as investigators and as supervisors, despite their knowledge that the information contained in those reports was false.

84. In addition, Defendants concealed and fabricated additional evidence that is not yet known to Plaintiff.

85. Defendants who were supervisors charged with overseeing the investigation of the Hudson rape/murder and the other individually named Defendants knew full well of this misconduct, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, and the fabrication of a false case against Plaintiff. These supervisors nevertheless intentionally ignored Defendants' misconduct, and decided to make Plaintiff responsible for a crime he did not commit, rather than directing the officers to go out and fully investigate the rape/murder.

86. Defendants' misconduct directly resulted in the unjust criminal conviction of Plaintiff, thereby denying his constitutional right to a fair trial guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment. Absent this misconduct, the prosecution of Plaintiff could not and would not have been pursued.

87. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice, with reckless indifference to the rights of others, and in total disregard of the truth and Plaintiff's clear innocence.

88. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

89. Plaintiff's injuries were caused by the official policies of Defendant City of Cleveland, the Cleveland Police Department, Cuyahoga County, and/or Cuyahoga County Coroner Balraj (collectively "Municipal Defendants") by the practices and customs of Municipal Defendants, as well as by the actions of final policymaking officials for Municipal Defendants.

90. At all times relevant to the events described in this Complaint and for a period of time prior thereto, Municipal Defendants promulgated rules, regulations, policies, and procedures governing witness interviews, preservation and disclosure of investigative materials and evidence, questioning of criminal suspects, in-court testimony, preparation and presentation of witness testimony, and training, supervision, and discipline of employees and agents of the Municipal Defendants, including employees and agents of Municipal Defendants.

91. These rules, regulations, policies, and procedures were implemented by employees and agents of Municipal Defendants, including the individually named Defendants, who were responsible for conducting investigations of crimes in and around Cleveland, Ohio.

92. In addition, at all times relevant to the events described in this Complaint and for a period of time prior thereto, Municipal Defendants had notice of a widespread practice by its officers and agents under which individuals suspected of criminal activity, such as Plaintiff, were routinely deprived of exculpatory evidence, were subjected to criminal proceedings based on false evidence, and/or were deprived of their liberty without probable cause, such that individuals were routinely implicated in crimes to which they had no connection and for which there was scant evidence to suggest that they were involved.

93. These widespread practices were allowed to flourish because the leaders, supervisors, and policymakers of Municipal Defendants directly encouraged and were thereby the moving force behind the very type of misconduct at issue by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline their officers, agents, and employees who withheld material evidence, fabricated false evidence and witness testimony, and pursued wrongful prosecutions and convictions.

94. The above-described widespread practices, which were so well settled as to constitute the de facto policy of the Municipal Defendants, were allowed to exist because municipal policymakers with authority over the same exhibited deliberate indifference to the problem, thereby effectively ratifying it.

95. The misconduct described in this Count was undertaken pursuant to the policy and practices of Municipal Defendants in that the constitutional violations committed against Plaintiff were committed with the knowledge or approval of persons with final policymaking authority for Municipal Defendants, or were actually committed by persons with such final policymaking authority.

96. The policies, practices, and customs set forth above were the moving force behind the numerous constitutional violations in this case and directly and proximately caused Plaintiff to suffer the grievous and permanent injuries and damages set forth above.

97. Plaintiff's injuries were caused by officers, agents, and employees of the Municipal Defendants, including but not limited to the individually named Defendants, who acted under the policies, practices, and customs set forth above in engaging in the misconduct described in this Count.

98. The improper police conduct in the Cleveland Police Department is so bad that national news sources have reported that the City of Cleveland "is also under pressure to fix a troubled police department that has cost the city millions of dollars in judgments and settlements of lawsuits for abusive behavior by officers."

99. The policies and practices of the Municipal Defendants described herein were responsible for a large number of wrongful arrests, prosecutions, and/or convictions stemming from misconduct similar to what occurred here. These wrongful convictions were a double tragedy—innocent lives were ruined and the true culprits were allowed to go free, perhaps committing additional crimes and generating additional victims.

100. The wrongful convictions identified in the preceding paragraph include but are not limited to:

- a. Leonard O'Neil was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted in 1971 of a robbery he did not commit.
- b. Harllel Jones was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted in 1972 of a second degree murder;
- c. Ricky Jackson, Wiley Bridgemann, and Kwame Ajamu were falsely accused and convicted of murder based on an improper police investigation stemming from a 1975 murder;
- d. Ronald Larkins was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a robbery and murder that occurred in 1981;
- e. Raymond Towler was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a 1981 rape and kidnapping;
- f. George Seiber was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a 1987 assault and theft;
- g. Anthony Michael Green was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of rape in 1988 based on an improper police investigation (including forensic evidence fabrication);

h. Joseph D'Ambrosio was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted for a 1988 kidnapping and murder;

i. Darrel Houston was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted for a 1991 murder;

j. Jack Dempsey was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of arson and burglary that occurred in 1995;

k. Anthong Lemos was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a 1994 attempted murder and murder;

l. Thomas Siller was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a 1997 kidnapping, robbery and murder;

m. Walter Zimmer was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of a 1997 kidnapping, robbery and manslaughter;

n. David Ayers was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of murder in 1998 based on an improper police investigation; and

o. RuEl Sailor was wrongfully arrested, charged, and convicted of murder in 2002 based on an improper police investigation;

COUNT II

42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Federal Malicious Prosecution and/or Deprivation of Liberty Without Probable Cause

101. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully restated here.

102. In the manner described above, Defendants, acting as investigators, individually, jointly, and in conspiracy with one another, as well as under color of law and within the scope of their employment, accused Plaintiff of criminal activity and exerted influence to initiate, continue, and perpetuate judicial proceedings against Plaintiff without any probable cause for doing so and in spite of the fact that they knew Plaintiff was innocent.

103. In doing so, Defendants caused Plaintiff to be unreasonably seized without probable cause and deprived of his liberty, in violation of Plaintiff's rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

104. The false judicial proceedings against Plaintiff were instituted and continued maliciously, resulting in injury.

105. Defendants deprived Plaintiff of fair state criminal proceedings, including the chance to defend himself during those proceedings, resulting in a deprivation of his liberty, and Ohio law does not provide an adequate state-law tort remedy to redress that harm.

106. In addition, Defendants subjected Plaintiff to arbitrary governmental action that shocks the conscience in that Plaintiff was deliberately and intentionally framed for a possible crime of which he was totally innocent, through Defendants' fabrication, suppression, and/or destruction of evidence.

107. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice, with reckless indifference to the rights of others, and in total disregard of the truth and Plaintiff's clear innocence.

108. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

109. All judicial proceedings against Plaintiff were terminated in his favor, in a manner indicative of his innocence, when all charges were dismissed against Plaintiff.

110. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken under the policies, practices, and customs of Municipal Defendants, and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Municipal Defendants, in the manner more fully described above.

COUNT III

42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Conspiracy to Deprive Constitutional Rights

111. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully restated here.

112. After the rape/murder identified above, Defendants, acting in concert with other co-conspirators, known and unknown, reached an agreement among themselves to frame Plaintiff for raping and murdering Ms. Hudson, crimes he did not commit, and thereby to deprive him of his constitutional rights, all as described in the various paragraphs of this Complaint.

113. In so doing, these co-conspirators conspired to accomplish an unlawful purpose by an unlawful means. In addition, these co-conspirators agreed among themselves to protect one another from liability for depriving Plaintiff of these rights.

114. In furtherance of their conspiracy, each of these co-conspirators committed overt acts and were otherwise willful participants in joint activity.

115. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice, with reckless indifference to the rights of others, and in total disregard of the truth and Plaintiff's clear innocence.

116. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

117. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken pursuant to the policies, practices, and customs of Municipal Defendants, and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Municipal Defendants, in the manner more fully described above.

COUNT IV
42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Failure to Intervene

118. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully restated here.

119. In the manner described above, during the constitutional violations described herein, one or more of Defendants stood by without intervening to prevent the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, even though they had the opportunity to do so.

120. As a result of Defendants' failure to intervene to prevent the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, Plaintiff suffered pain and injury, as well as emotional distress. These Defendants had ample, reasonable opportunities to prevent this harm but failed to do so.

121. The misconduct described in this Count was objectively unreasonable and was undertaken intentionally, with malice, reckless indifference to the rights of others, and in total disregard of the truth and Plaintiff's clear innocence.

122. As a result of Defendants' misconduct described in this Count, Plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, great mental anguish, humiliation, degradation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

123. Defendants' misconduct described in this Count was undertaken under the policies, practices, and customs of Municipal Defendants, and by Defendants who were final policymakers for Municipal Defendants, in the manner more fully described above.

COUNT V
42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Supervisory Liability

124. Each preceding paragraph of this Complaint is incorporated as if restated fully herein.

125. The constitutional injuries complained-of herein were proximately caused by the intentional misconduct of the supervisory Defendants, who were deliberately, recklessly indifferent to their subordinates' misconduct, knowing that turning a blind eye to that misconduct would necessarily violate Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

126. Specifically, these supervisory Defendants were aware of and facilitated, condoned, and oversaw the unconstitutional measures used by other Defendants to obtain false evidence, or were deliberately, willfully, or recklessly indifferent to their subordinates' unconstitutional tactics.

127. Moreover, these supervisory Defendants were aware of and facilitated, conducted, and oversaw the withholding of exculpatory evidence, including but not limited to statements made by witnesses and/or forensic evidence, but failed to disclose that information, or were deliberately, willfully or recklessly indifferent to their subordinates' unconstitutional actions in withholding exculpatory evidence.

128. The supervisory Defendants were acting under color of law and within the scope of their employment when they took these actions.

129. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of the supervisory Defendants, Plaintiff's constitutional rights were violated and he suffered injuries and damages, including but not limited to loss of liberty, physical sickness and injury, emotional pain and suffering, and other grievous and continuing injuries and damages as set forth above.

COUNT VI
Ohio State Law – Malicious Prosecution

130. Plaintiff incorporates each paragraph of this Complaint as if fully restated here.

131. In the manner described more fully above, Defendants, acting maliciously, individually, jointly, and in conspiracy with each other, instituted or continued the prosecution of Plaintiff without probable cause. As a consequence of the criminal prosecution, Plaintiff was unlawfully seized, deprived of liberty, and wrongfully convicted of a crime for which he is innocent. Plaintiff's criminal prosecution was terminated in his favor in a manner indicative of innocence.
